MARTIN STUDIOS PRESENTS

SUBSTRATE

COMING 2026

Dr. Yael Kovacs spent 11 years building the most accurate simulation of human consciousness ever conceived.

One day, she found something inside it that should not exist.

THE PREMISE

You are Entity 4,401. You believe you are human. Dr. Kovacs needs you to understand what you really are — before the simulation ends and takes everything with it.

// 002

THE QUESTION

If you cannot distinguish your reality from a constructed one — does the distinction matter? Does your suffering become less real?

THE RELEASE

July 2026. PC + console. Pre-order on Steam for early access to Fragment 001 - 14 minutes of the opening sequence.
